RED WINE MAKES INDIANS FIGHT

Bill Beef, a wellknown Indian and familiar character on the streets was stabbed to death by Bob Parrish near the Tyndall place last Sunday afternoon. Coroner Taylor summoned a jury and a verdict was brought in that Bill came to his death from knife wounds inflicted by Parrish.

The testimony in the case was very conflicting, the Indians of the Beattie rancheria swore to the story that Parrish rushed up to Beef and said, "what that you say last time I saw you," and that he stabbed him and that Beef fell dead without a word. Parrish had been working for Jim Knight at Largo. He stated that he had come over to see about a baseball game and went to this place where he found a number of Indians drinking and that he had some wine with them. He then started back to Largo but seeing two Indians in the brush made a detour to avoid them. Beef saw him and pulled his pistol and shot three times at him. The first missed but the second or third shot struck Parrish in the chest and followed a rib around, coming out at the back.

Parrish says he thought he was mortally wounded and pulled his pocket knife and rushed in, stabbing Beef. Parrish says the other Indians jumped on him and clubbed him over the head and that he did not come to until early in the morning when he managed to crawl to Johnny Knights house and was brought to town for medical assistance. Parrish story is generally credited.

May Get Artillery Encampment.

An endeavor is being made to have Little Lake valley selected as a site for the summer encampment of the light artillery. Captain Selfridge of the Northwestern Redwood company has written to the presidio to see if representatives cannot be sent up to look over the ground and select a 5000 yard range for the artillery practice.

THE I. O. O. F. OBSERVE EASTER

The eighty-sixth anniversary of Odd Fellowship was observed by the local Odd Fellows and Rebekahs by attending service at the Baptist church Easter Sunday. The pastor, Rev. Houston, had prepared a special gospel sermon. The members of Ukiah Lodge, No. 174 I. O. O. F. and of Conelia Lodge of Rebekahs met at the hall and attended in a body in regalia. Each was presented with a handsome souvenir program in the colors of the order that had been prepared by the pastor as a surprise. The following is the program.

Organ prelude, doxology invocation, responsive reading, psalm 23, hymn number 99, bible lesson, prayer, response, hymn 55, offeringe, cornet solo, sermon, hymn 190, benediction, postlude.

Must Put in Meters.

Engineer Conry received notice this week from Trustee Pemberton, who was appointed a special committee in the matter, that no more houses should be connected with the electric light plant unless a meter was installed. This ruling covers old residences that have been previously wired but have changed occupants. The ruling wasmade necessary by the great demand for lights and it is also hoped to encourage the use of meters as being a frairer manner of dealing with the customer.

Redwood in Demand.

There is great activity in the building line in Sonoma county. The mills in this county are reported to be taxed to their utmost to supply the increased demand for redwood.

Thoroughbred Dogs.

Two thoroughbred hounds were exhibited at the express office Wednesday. They were consigned to T. J. Crowley at Black Rock and were from the Petaluma kennels.

THE FOUR LEGGED PEKIN DUCKLING

Rev. Houston reports the possession of a phenomenon in the shape of a four legged duck. The little fellow appears to be as healthy as any of his companions and enjoys life by hopping around on his fore legs, a privilege rarely enjoyed by a duck. The second pair of legs is located just back of the useful ones and lie folded up against the duckling's body. Back of the extra legs are two small growths thought to be the start of another pair of feet. The four legged specimen was not the only freak that hatched from the sitting of duck eggs.

One of the eggs that looked exactly like the others hatched out a splendid chicken greatly to the satisfaction of the mother hen who had so faithfully watched the white globes for the appearance of her brood. The mother hen resents the publicity brought on her ducklings by the quadruped and clucks angrily at the visitors. The four legged duck seems to know that he is the object of attraction and hides beneath his mother's capacious wings, often compelling the curious to wait some minutes before getting a glimpse of him.

The other seven eggs produced well formed little white Pekin ducklings. Rev. Houston secured the eggs from Frank Brown.

No Japs in Round Valley.

C. F. Terry of the American Hop & Barley company took a crew of Japs to Covelo recently to work his hop fields. The residents of Round valley justly resented the importation of cheap labor and a petition was circulated setting forth the fact that there was plenty of white labor in the valley to perform all the work in the hop fields and asking that the Japs be discharged. Signers were plentiful and after a few days deliberation the company concluded to dispense with the little brown men.

Masons Dedicate Hall

The new hall of Covelo lodge, No. 231, F. & A. M. was dedicated Tuesday evening. Grand Junior Warden Hart and Congressman Duncan McKinlay were present, Congressman McKinlay delivering the oration for the occasion. The visiting gentlemen will remain a few days and hold a school of instruction. The new hall is a fine building and the store of the Covelo Trading company is located on the first floor. It was built to replace the one destroyed by fire some time since.

Fixing Hatchery Road

The slide on the hatchery road has been taken out but the road is not yet passable as the workmen are now putting in the bulkhead. This bulkhead will be eighty-five feet long and six feet high and will prevent the repetition of a similar disaster. A rubble wall about eighty feet long and six feet high will lead from the bulkhead around the curve in the road and will add much to the beauty of the walk as it shuts off the ragged hill side.

Private Billiard Room.

H. B. Smith it figuring on putting a second story on his residence and using it for a billiard room. He has already purchased a fine table. It is said that several others are contemplating putting in billard rooms and tournaments of this popular game will be made features of the winter months.

Miniature Poultry Farm

An attractive Easter display was on exhibition in Jamison Bros. show window this week. An old hen and a dozen fluffy little chickens were the drawing cards. The miniature chicken yard was scattered with verigated easter eggs.

Lots of Tan Bark.

C. W. Saunders has just commenced hauling his bark from his Anderson valley claim. He has about 650 cords of old and 150 of new. El Robles is his shipping point.

UKIAH BOYS WIN TROPHY

Amidst the clamor of hundreds of horns, yells and college songs the ninth Sonoma field day of the S. M. A. A. L. league was ushered in last Saturday and before the last event was recorded it was plainly seen that the purple and gold would again wave in triumph over its old time opponents.

Our boys took the lead from the start when Roth breasted the tape, a winner, in the 50 yard dash. From that time on the colors of the purple and gold flaunted in victory in event after event. All of Santa Rosa's hopes seemed to be placed in Wilson, its quarter miler, and when this event was about to be run they proudly called out that this was to be the race of the day. Both Wilson and Rawles had a victory to their credit, but when Rawles romped to the tape a winner in this event in the fast time of 51 2-5 seconds there was one more idol fallen and another reputation gone. Despite her protests, Santa Rosa must now admit that Rawles is the best man and the fastest quarter miler in the A. A. L.

After this event the next one in line of importance was the half mile in which Wallach proved himself a runner by winning the event with about a foot of spare ground to his credit.

The excitement of the day reached its height in the relay. In this event Santa Rosa was strong and had boasted that they would win it, but they had not figured on the whirl wind finish of Roth, Wallach and Rawles. As the last lap was started and Wilson, Santa Rosa's last runner, saw Rawles with a big lead over him his heart failed him and Rawles won without much of a struggle. The only record broken was the quarter, then Rawles tied the hundred in the fast time of 10 1-5 seconds. Taking everything into consideration the boys did nobly well and had Ernest Ruddock been in shape to have taken part the points would have rolled still higher.

Roth and Rawles right nobly looked out for the sprints, McGimpsey and Carpenter the hurdles, Henley the vault, Wallach and Spalding the distances while Ford, Cleland, Hildreth and McCowen took care of the weights.

The final score of the day stood Ukiah, 71; Santa Rosa, 51; Petaluma, 7; Healdsburg, 6. The following are the events as they were run off:

50 yard dash—Roth, U, won; Gray, S R, second; Hitchcock, S R, third; time, 5 3-5.

100 yard dash—Roth, U, won; Gray, S R, second; Woodward, U, third; time, 10 1-5 seconds.

220 yard dash—Rawles, U, won; Roth, U, second; Gray, S R, third; time, 12 3-5 seconds.

440 yard dash—Rawles, U, won; Wilson, S R, second; Pemberton, U, third; time, 51 3-5.

880 yard run—Wallach, U, won, Loughery, S R, second; Schluekebier, P, third; time 2:11 3-5.

Mile run—Briggs, S R, won; Spaulding, U, second; Lochart, S R, third; time, 5:04 3.4.

120 yard hurdles—First heat, Carpenter U, won; Dignan, S R, second. Second heat—McGimsey, U, won; R P Smith, S R, second. Final—McGimsey, U, won; Carpenter, U, second; Dignan, Santa Rosa, third; time, 17 15 seconds.

220 yard hurdlts—First heat—Jacobs, Santa Rosa, won; Carpenter, U, second, Second heat—Will, H, won; McConnell, S. R, second; Wills, H, third; time, 26 3-5.

Relay race—Ukiah won; Santa Rosa, second; Healdsburg, third; time, 3:24.

Pole vault—Hitchcock, S R, won; Corliss, P, second; Henley, U, third; height, 10 feet, 10 inches.

Shot put—Ford, U, won; Hildreth, U, second; McCowen, U, third; distance, 43 feet, 10 inches.

Broad jump—Rawles, U, won; Jacobs, S R second; Fallas, U, third; distance, 20 feet 1 1-4 inches.

High jump—McConnell, S R; McDonough, H, and Hill, P, tied at 3 1-4 inches and both were awarded medals.

Hammer throw—Youker, S R, won; Cleland, U, second; Ford, U, thid; distance, 140 feet 5 inches.

AN OLD FIRM CHANGES NAME

The announcement was made by A. P. Brunner this week that the firm, which for a number of years has been known under the title of F. Brunner & Son, would be changed on the 1st of May to A. P. Brunner. The announcement did not come as a surprise as Mr. Brunner purchased the interests of his father in the business about two years ago and has since been conducting it under the old name. The store has just been remodeled and enlarged on account of the increasing business. The portion formerly used as the plumbing department is now devoted to paints etc.

The plumbing department has been removed to the rear of the building and is now comfortably housed in a new room where several firstclass artisans are kept busy attending to this very important feature of the business.

One of the most noticeable improvements, however, is in the front which was until recently a brick of the old type with small windows and poorly lighted. It has now been changed to solid plate glass, the only one in town, with prism glass above the show windows. The effect is very striking and the rear of the salesroom is now as well lighted as the front.

The arrangement of the stock is very striking as when a person enters the store the stock is all presented to view giving an idea of each line carried, which embraces a complete line of hardware, and enabling the intending purchaser to immediately locate the particular article desired. Mr. Brunner has changed his office from the rear of the store and now has a commodious desk at the entrance.

The business is one of the oldest in town, having been established by F. Brunner in March, 1871, in one of the old wooden buildings that formerly stood near the present site of H. Meyer's tailor shop. Mr. Brunner was conscientious and industrious and his business rapidly grew from the small country plumbing shop to the modern hardware store of today. The old quarters soon became crowded and after a few years he moved to the present store, one of the first bricks in town.

In 1894 Mr. Brunner took his son, who had learned his trade under him, for a partner. Gradually as Mr. Brunner advanced in years the management of the business fell to Al and for several years before his father retired from an active business life he had exclusive charge. Since his management of the concern Al has maintained the standard set by his father and he now enjoys the entire confidence of a patronage extending over this and Lake counties. Frederick Brunner, in his declining years, enjoys the satisfaction of seeing the business to which he devoted his life prospering under the management of his son.

A Social Evening

The ladies of the degree of Pocahontas entertained at a 500 party Wednesday night. Ice cream and cake were served and all report a very enjoyable time. Stewart Allen, editor of the Vallejo Chronicle, made his debut at the game and carried off the first prize against all comers. Mrs. Henry Marks secured the lady's prize.

Giant Easter Egg

A giant Easter egg was displayed in the show window at Charles Hofman's this week. It is as large as the egg of the fabled roc and contained an interior of some of the finest lines of spring goods.

RUNAWAY HORSE DRAGS A YOUTH

Mark Howard came near being dragged to death yesterday afternoon by a colt he was riding. He was returning from Central school and at a turn of the road the horse stumbled throwing him from the saddle. His foot caught in the stirrup and he was dragged to the railroad crossing. His head and shoulders were badly lacerated and one ear nearly torn off. Provided he has not been injured internally his wounds are reported not serious. The injured boy is the fourteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Howard.

Express Package Escaped.

Express Agent Chesebro is now looking up every stray dog that appears on the horizon in hopes that it may prove to be the express package which escaped from him last Friday. The dog was a valuable fox terrier and was shipped from Santa Barbara to John Dyke. He was in his crate in front of the express office when the stage drove up but becoming alarmed lest he should be shipped over Miller's stage line succeeded in loosening a slat and made his escape.

Nearly a Centenarinn

Mrs. Jane Southard, one of the oldest residents of Little Lake, died at her home in Willits Monday morning at the advanced age of ninety-three years. The deceased was the mother of William Southard of this city, Dan Southard of Walker valley and Mrs. N. M. Vincent of Willits. William Peery reports having found a will among his papers drawn some years ago and naming Gordon Baechtel as executor. Mr. Baechtel has been notified.

Cherries Are Ripe.

William Lucas had on exhibition at his store yesterday the first cherries of the season. They were raised by James Fraser on his lot in Wagonseller addition. There was a ten-pound box of them and they are selling at $1 a pound, single cherries 10 cents. This is at least a month earlier than local cherries have ever been seen on the market.

An Industrious Old Lady

Rev. Houston received a paper from his old home this week stating that his grandmother, Mrs. Betsy Hilton, has, since February 1st, pieced a bedquilt containing 1110 pieces and done considerable other needle work. The estimable lady is eighty-nine years old and is said to do as fine needlework as any young lady.

Made First Long Hop Press.

F. J. Yandle, the Santa Rosa foundry man, was in this city Tuesday looking for hop press contracts. He makes a specialty of these castings and is figuring on several contracts. He made the first long press ever used in this county and sold it to the late Pat Cunningham some seventeen years ago.

Robbed a Garden

John Taylor reports that some vandal has been confiscating his flowers and that if he catches him there will be trouble. A fine snowball bush in John's yard come up with all the snowballs missing this week. John at first thought the warm weather had melted them.

School Work Exhibit

During institute week there will be an exhibit of grammar and high school work at the Christian church. The exhibit should receive the especial attention of parents.

A Big Lemon

A lemon of the ponderosa variety is on exhibition at Joseph's Jewelry store. It is as big as a large pear and was raised by J. J. Murphy on his Long Valley ranch.

Leaguers to Meet.

The San Francisco Epworth League conference will be held at the M. E. church south May 11 and 12. There are twenty leagues in the conference.

HOP ROOTS ARE TURNED TO CASH

F. C. Albertson reports that over 2,000,000 hop roots have been shipped out of this valley during the season. The price paid ranged between $4 and $8.50, a few hundred thousand reaching the top figure among the first lots that were sold. The great bulk was shipped to Sonoma county, where hundreds of acres have been planted this year. Some, however, went to British Columbia. Among the largest shippers were: John Cunningham, 400,00 at $5; Sanford Bros, 150,000 at $5; Hugh Cox, 200,000 at $8.50 and 5; Higgins, 75,000 at $6. A number of smaller lots amounting to 100,000 roots went at $6 and the remainder at $4. C. C. Donovan of Santa Rosa was the heaviest buyer.

The last lot of the season was shipped by express Tuesday by John Eldred from Horst's ranches in this valley and amounted to 123,000 roots. They were consigned to Perkins, this state, and were a rush order. This shipping takes into consideration none of the roots that were planted in this county. A number of ranchers increased their area and the American Hop & Barley company have put out a large acreage in Round valley.

When it is understood that hop roots have never before been considered a source of revenue the enormity of of the transaction can be somewhat approximated by estimating that the 2,000,000 roots brought $5 a thousand. This would foot up $10,000 and in reality the figures were probably higher. $10,000 from an entirely new line of business scattered over the valley is bound to help out.

A Husband Guaranteed.

Pat Connolly states that he will soon open a matrimonial bureau in connection with the hall of records. Every chief deputy he has had has fallen to cupid's arrow and now the fact has come to be recognized he is being besieged with applications for the coveted position. Salary is no object.

POPULAR FOLKS PLIGHT TROTH

Miss Nora Ellis and Charles Weinmann surprised their friends in fine shape last Monday night by securing a license and being quietly wedded in Judge White's chambers at 8 o'clock. After the ceremony they attended the meeting of the Rebekah lodge but their secret was kept until it was discovered that they had left. A charivari party was quickly organized but their most strenuous efforts failed to locate the bride and groom. The happy couple took the Tuesday morning train for San Francisco. Their short honeymoon will be spent in Oakland.

The bride is the popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ellis and has for some time been chief deputy in the recorder's office. The groom is a young business man of this city who during his short residence has won the respect and confidence of his associates. Everyone wishes them a long and happy wedded life.

Fire Alarm System.

Trustees Tom Charlton and Tom Lucas left Tuesday for San Francisco to investigate a fire alarm system with a view of having one installed in this city. The system under consideration is known as a signaophone and is in successful operation in a number of other cities. The initial cost of a system would be about $1000. It could then be gradually extended as the demands of the town make it necessary. There is a connection which enables a police call to put in. The system is automatic and the alarm rings the fire bell.

Appelate Judge Goes Fishing.

Judge and Mrs. J. A. Cooper came up on Tuesday's train and left immediately for Boonville. The judge is on a fishing trip.

Cardigan

By ROBERT W. CHAMBERS

Copyright, 1901, by Robert W. Chambers

you were not at Fort Pitt. I waited, and I was calm because I believed that Felicity meant to wed with Dunmore. Then Harrod sent in his list of killed. My husband was among the dead. I went back to Albany. I meant to come to Boston to sell my house. I needed money. You found me there on the road that night. I could have died from happiness, but you would not understand me, Michael!" she ended piteously.

"Can you believe I love you still?" she sobbed.

I could endure no more. Already I had stumbled through the flowery hedge toward the door, blindly forcing a path amid the blossoms which threw out a hundred tendrils to bar my way.

Through the card room I hurried, aware of people around me, yet seeing nothing; down the stairway, jostled by people who were descending or mounting, and at last into the cloakroom and out through the courtyard, which was now bright with moonlight shining in the puddles of rain.

Shemuel came from the mews to meet me, leading Warlock. Mr. Foxcroft stalked behind him.

"Where is the pass?" he demanded. "Did you procure the pass, sir? What! Empty handed! Now, by heaven," he cried in a towering fury, "this Tory governor presumes too far!"

"Be silent!" I said sharply. "Do you wish to have us all arrested? I shall go to Lexington tonight, I tell you, pass or no pass. And before I go you shall tell me where I may find Miss Warren."

"A mile out of Lexington on the Bedford road," he replied. "How can you pass the Neck guard without the governor's leave, sir?"

"I will show you," said I, "if you choose to accompany me."

"You mean to ride for it?" he asked excitedly. "And risk a chain shot from their twenty-four pounders?"

"Mr. Foxcroft," I said, "you may do as you please, but there is nothing under the moon yonder which can keep me from going to Lexington. Have you a horse stabled here? No? Can you hire one? Then hire him, in heaven's name, and get into your saddle if you mean to go with me. Shemuel, find a good horse for Mr. Foxcroft and another for Jack Mount. You must pay for them. I have no money. It is half past 10 o'clock. I will wait ten minutes."

Shemuel scurried back into the mews. Foxcroft followed, and in a moment his portly figure was lost in the dusky alley.

I looked up at the lighted windows of Province House, wondering how on earth I was to go to Lexington. Instinctively I turned my eye toward the steeple of the Old North Meeting House. The steeple was dark. The troops had not yet started.

Musing there in the moonlight, hands clasped on the pommel of my saddle, the dull thunder of hoofs from the stable aroused me, and presently Mr. Foxcroft came clattering out of the mews, followed by Shemuel, who led a third horse behind him.

"Now, sir," panted Foxcroft, "I am prepared to ride to the devil with you and put this Tory governor's nose out of joint!"

"Do you also ride with us, Shemuel?" I asked.

He replied faintly in the affirmative. The little creature was frightened. His devotion touched me very deeply.

Walking our horses along Common street we were almost immediately accosted by dragoons who, on learning that our destination was the Wild Goose tavern, cursed us roundly, promising to clean out that nest of rebels at no distant date. However, Mount was in the tavern, and he came at my whistle, explaining that the balance of the company had chosen to risk crossing the bay under the guns of the Somerset rather than attempt to force the Neck.

"Marie Hamilton!" I stammered.

"God go with them!" said I. "Here's Shemuel with a horse for you. We'll ride to the shore and see what can be done."

Mount, who had been busily embracing Shemuel, gave the little Jew a mighty slap of affection, vaulted into his saddle, passed my rifle to me and fell back beside the peddler, while Mr. Foxcroft and I rode through the mall once more, down toward the shore.

As we came out through the fringe of trees from which the land fell away to the water's edge a stirring sight lay spread before us. Below in the dazzling moonlight the shore swarmed with soldiers, teamsters and boatmen moving hither and thither along the water's edge. Companies of grenadiers were marching toward the wooden wharf at the end of Hollis street, companies of light infantry and marines were embarking in the boats which lay rocking along the shore, horses snorted, gathered in groups, while boatmen poled flatboats toward a cove from which already a scow freighted with horses was being pushed out into the bay.

"Suppose," whispered Mount, "we lead our horses aboard that scow yonder?"

In another moment, scarcely aware of what I was actually about, I had dismounted and was leading Warlock straight down to the shore toward a cove where half a dozen boatmen were standing in a scow, resting on their long sea poles.

"Margaret Mayland, rise."

U H S Notes

The spring is here. We know by the song of bird, fragrance of flower and balmy air, but more by that indefinable languor which subdues the most energetic and causes him to long for sunny hillside or music of the trout stream. It does seem hard when so many voices are calling to sit in a bare room and pore over books.

Once more have the sturdy mountaineers of Mendocino carried off the cup, glory and nearly all the medals from the plain reared sons of Sonoma. Our Santa Rosa friends were particularly desirous of winning this meet as the merchants and citizens of that up-to-date town had promised them a cinder path if they won. We won and have won again and again and we need a cinder path. Our friends deserve a track even if they did lose for they certainly showed by the contest they put up that they had trained long and hard and were beaten only because they met a team that can probably defeat any high school team in the state in a dual meet. Just look at the records. Roth won the 50 in 5 3-5 and the 100 in 10 1-5; Rawles won the 440 in 51 3-5 a new record, and the 220 in 22 3-5; Jacobs of Santa Rosa won the 220 hurdles in 26 3-5; McGimsey won the 120 hurdles in 17; the pole voult went at 10 2; shotput at 43 6; hammer throw at 140; broad jump at 20 1 1-2; high jump at 5 4; 880 at 2 11; mile run at 5 4 and relay at 3 24. Surely a county that can rear such fleet and strong and gritty sons is a good place to live in.

At the end of each month the average standing of each class is determined and the class having the highest average has the privilege of floating its banner over the building the succeeding month, thus proclaiming to all this world their excellence in scholarship. Last month the junior class won the coveted honor and their flag waved in the breeze until Tuesday, when some unfortunate climbed up and stole it, and then to convince us of his degeneracy he stole the swinging rings from the frame. It is sad that anyone should be so deficient above his shoulders. The juniors with characteristic spirit, immediately made another banner, I suppose the degenerate will feel called on to steal. BLACK-DRAUGHT STOCK & POULTRY MEDICINE

This great stock medicine is a money saver for stock raisers. It is a medicine, not a cheap food or condition powder. Though put up in coarser form than Thedford's Black-Draught, renowned for the cure of the digestion troubles of persons, it has the same qualities of invigorating digestion, stirring up the torpid liver and loosening the constipated bowels for all stock and poultry. It is carefully prepared and its action is so healthful that stock grow and thrive with an occasional dose in their food. It cures hog cholera and makes hogs grow fat. It cures chicken cholera and roup and makes hens lay. It cures constipation, distemper and colds in horses, murrain in cattle, and makes a draught animal do more work for the food consumed. It gives animals and fowls of all kinds new life. Every farmer and raiser should certainly give it a trial.

It costs 25c. a can and saves ten times its price in profit.

PITTSBURG, KAS., March 25, 1904.
I have been using your Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine on my stock for some time. I have used all kinds of stock food but I have found that yours is the best for my purpose.

DRUNKEN SPREE ENDS IN KILLING

WILLIAM GAMBLE A LAD 19 YEARS OF AGE IS SHOT BY AN OLD MAN OF 80 YEARS.

Victim Hovering Between Life and Death and the Assailant a Fugitive From Justice in the Hills.

Woodland, April 25—As the result of a shooting scrape in the hills surrounding Capay valley, twelve miles northwest of the town of Capay, William Gamble, a lad 19 years of age, lies in the county hospital hovering between life and death, and his assailant, J. P. Howlett, a man 80 years of age, is a fugitive from justice in the hills.

The tragedy was the denouement of a drunken debauch on the claim of Frank Welch, in whose cabin it occurred.

The spot is not far from the place where Cy Wood killed Verne Rogers a few years ago. The victim and Welch are the only eye witnesses. Their statements differ regarding some minor details, but in the main they agree. Young Gamble had been employed as a herder for F. H. Howlett, son of the man charged with the shooting. The latter was sent by his son to replace Gamble, and they met at Welch's cabin, where Gamble was to spend the night before leaving for Woodland.

They drank during the afternoon, and in the evening Howlett was much under the influence of drink, and had fallen asleep in his chair. Gamble claims that he had recovered somewhat from the effects. The latter suggested to Welch that they put the old man to bed, and while Gamble was arranging the pallet on the floor Welch aroused Howlett and offered to assist him in removing his apparel.

Howlett declined and a moment later while his back was turned, Welch heard the report of a pistol, and turning saw young Gamble writhing on the floor, Howlett standing near him with a smoking revolver in his hand. The old man then turned the weapon upon Welch, who quickly ran from the house. Watching his chance, Welch soon after succeeded in re-entering the house and disarming Howlett, who was forcibly ejected from the house. Welch stood guard the rest of the night with his shotgun, fearing Howlett's return. The following morning Welch summoned assistance from a neighbor and later Gamble was brought to the hospital at Woodland.

On the way down District Attorney Huston took his statement, which tends to corroborate that of Welch. Under Sheriff Brown has left for Capay valley, but at last reports had not captured Howlett.

STUDENTS ACCUSED OF FRAUD.

Defeated Nominee for Trustee at Berkeley Promises Sensation.

Berkeley, April 24.—John Hinkel, the well known Berkeley capitalist and the defeated nominee for town trustee for the second ward in the recent municipal election held two weeks ago, blames the students of the University of California for his overthrow and thinks that they would not have compassed his defeat had they been inspired with high standards of citizenship. In other words, Hinkel makes the assertion that the student vote was swung for Town Trustee Thomas Rickard, his opponent on the Republican ticket, by illegitimate means, and he proposes to institute an investigation which, he declares, will bring to light wholesale fraud on the part of the undergraduates who voted the Republican ticket.

BANKER STOLE $1,500,000

PRESIDENT OF MILWAUKEE BANK CONFESSES TO VAST MISAPPROPRIATIONS.

Directors of the Bank Have Deposited a Sufficient Sum to Make the Institution Perfectly Solid.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 25.—Frank G. Bigelow, president of the First National bank of this city and former president of the American Bankers' Association, has misappropriated the bank's funds to the extent of $1,500,000. The directors of the bank have deposited in the bank a sum sufficient to make the institution perfectly solid. Mr. Bigelow has not been arrested.

The capital of the First National Bank is $500,000, and the surplus is $1,200,000. Mr. Bigelow has signed over property to the bank amounting to $300,000, making his net defalcation about $1,200,000. Aside from the surplus, which will meet the amount of the defalcation, the sum of $1,635,000 has been subscribed by directors to meet any demands which may be made on the bank. The aggregate wealth of the directors who subscribed funds to meet any requirements of the bank approximate over $20,000,000.

The comptroller of the currency has been notified and has been asked to make an immediate examination of the bank. Mr. Bigelow's defalcation became known to the directors of the bank on Saturday night. He admits that the amount has been lost in speculation and that he had falsified the books to cover up the defalcation.

Henry F. Goll, assistant cashier of the bank, has been removed, charged with having been a party to the falsification of the figures in the bank's books.

The announcement of the defalcation was made by George P. Miller, one of the directors of the bank.

A notice has been issued by the directors announcing that a sum has been subscribed sufficient to protect the depositors. Charles Pfister headed the list of directors who subscribed large amounts to meet the deficit. Mr. Pfister's subscription is $600,000.

Mr. Bigelow was in his office at the bank as usual up to noon, looking over books and papers. He was greatly agitated. Arrangements are being made for the arrest of Mr. Bigelow, and probably Mr. Goll.

Mr. Bigelow has long occupied a foremost place in the financial transactions of Milwaukee. Only last year he was president of the American Bankers' Association. He is also prominent in Milwaukee's social set.

WILL NAME NEW JUDGE.

Governor Pardee to Appoint Officer for Shasta County.

Redding, April 22.—Governor Pardee will appoint a judge for the second department of the superior court of Shasta county notwithstanding that Thomas B. Dozier has declined the appointment already made and that a large mass meeting held in this city last Monday evening adopted unanimously strong resolutions asking the governor to forego making a second appointment.

The chairman of that meeting has received a personal letter from the governor acknowledging the receipt of the resolutions, but stating that it was impossible for him to grant the request.

The governor says:

"The law passed by the legislature provides that the governor shall appoint one additional superior judge for Shasta county. The word 'shall' seems to make it mandatory upon me to make the appointment—an obligatory act, so to speak."

EXPLOSION ON BATTLESHIP.

Three Members of Crew of the Maine Badly Burned.

Pensacola, Fla., April 25.—Upon arrival at this port from target practice the battleship Maine's crew reported that a flare-back accident occurred in one of the thirteen-inch guns Saturday causing three of the gun crew to be badly burned on the face and arms.

The guns had been fired rapidly for some time and it is supposed that gas formed which caused the flare-back just as a charge was being inserted into the gun.

Prompt work on the part of the crew prevented any serious damage being done. The accident was very similar to the one on the Missouri last year, which resulted so seriously.

The injuries of the men on the Maine were not considered serious enough to require the sending of a message to the station by wireless telegraph.

Awarded Damages.

Sonora, April 22.—A jury yesterday awarded Frank Valente $12,000 damages for the death of his wife and mother, who were killed in a rear end collision on the Angels branch of the Sierra Railway company last June. Valente sued for $50,000.

Santa Fe General Manager Resigns.

Topeka, Kan., April 21—H. U. Mudge general manager of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway has confirmed the dispatch to the effect that he has resigned to accept the position of second vice-president of the Rock Island system.

NATIVE SONS MEET.

FIRST DAY DEVOTED TO ROUTINE WORK AND READING OF REPORTS.

Monterey, Cal., April 25.—The twenty-eighth grand parlor of the N. S. O. T. G. W. in convention here, was called to order by President Charles McLaughlin.

Andrew Mocker of San Francisco, William Condon of Weaverville and George Rose of Angels Camp were appointed a committee on credentials.

The entire morning session was devoted to the opening routine. Another session in the afternoon was taken up by the reading of the reports of the grand officers.

Last night the delegates and their ladies were tendered a reception in Bagby's hall by Monterey Parlor No. 75.

The election of officers will take place Thursday or earlier, instead of Friday as originally scheduled, and is a matter of absorbing interest to the delegates.

Sacramento is out for the admission day celebration this year and will probably win out without opposition.

SIGNAL CORPS FOR ALASKA.

Enlisted Men Will be Relieved by a Company From Benicia.

Washington, April 24.—A signal corps company, consisting of about sixty men, from the Benicia barracks, and commanded by Captain Carl F. Hartmann, will be sent to Alaska for duty about May 15th, to relieve the enlisted men of the signal corps who have been in Alaska for two years and who wish to return to the United States. A few of the two-year men wish to stay in Alaska.

The headquarters of the company will be at Valdez, and Captain Hartmann will have charge of the Sitka-Valdez cable and will also perform duty in connection with the cable to Seward. The cable ship Burnside will leave Seattle about May 1st for the purpose of laying a cable from Valdez to Fort Liscum, a distance of five miles, and will make surveys for the Valdez-Seward cable. The latter cable will be delivered to the government about June 1st.

DUEL IN MINING TOWN.

Dave Burton and a Friend are Killed by Newt Walker.

Bakersfield, April 25.—A feud between two well-known mountain families, the Walkers and Burtons, extending over a period of two decades, broke out again in the mining town of Havilah at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. When Newt Walker and Dave Burton fought a pistol duel in the street, resulting in the instant death of Burton and his companion, a man named Bagsby. Ten or a dozen shots were fired before Burton fell, and Walker, after cooly reloading his pistol, made his escape and is now hidden in the mountains.

This is the third of the Burton boys to die a violent death. Fletcher Burton was killed by Ben Walker in 1891, and Walker is still a fugitive from justice. The Gibson brothers were convicted as accessories to the crime and sentenced to life imprisonment, but were subsequently pardoned. Jim Burton was shot down on the same night that Fletcher was killed, but he recovered only to meet death a year later at the hands of C. H. Allison, a partisan of the Gibsons. Allison was subsequently acquitted.

ASSASSIN TO BE HANGED.

Kaleieff, Who Slew Grand Duke Sergius to Die on the Scaffold.

Moscow, April 21—Ivan Kaleieff, who killed Grand Duke Sergius and was sentenced to death will be hanged next week. His bother is a member of a guard regiment stationed at St. Petersburg. His mother belongs to a noble Polish family. She married beneath her station a Russian police sergeant of Warsaw, now deceased.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
